
Adam Sotirakopoulos

483 E Broadway
Haverhill, Massachusetts 01830
617.780.9880
adam@sotirakopoulos.com

EXPERIENCE:

Associate Vice President; Health, Safety,
Environment & Quality
Enel Green Power North America, Inc.

August 2007 - Present
Andover, MA

Experienced global Health, Safety, Environment and Quality professional with a demonstrated history of working in multiple industries including renewable energy development, construction and operations. Skilled in ISO 9001, OHSAS 18001 / ISO45001, ISO 14001 integrated management systems approach including system implementations. Accredited internal auditor for safety, environment, and quality.

Work daily in a global team as the Head of HSEQ for the North America area of a global energy company reporting to the North America CEO. Responsible for building and implementing HSEQ systems in a growing renewable energy business and more than 100 operating projects in across North America. Worked in hydro, geothermal, biomass and wind power generation. Responsible for all areas of HSEQ at these facilities and construction projects. Key projects include IMS implementation and building company program, building environmental compliance program, NFPA 70E as well as implementing other regulatory compliance programs requirements. Managed workers compensation claims and incident investigation. Lead team of 39 and have oversight for the department budget. Implemented new management systems for EHS, developed systems including SAP for HSEQ management. Reduced lost time incident rate from 25 to 0 in 2010. Worked to implement document control and maintenance management software.

EH&S Engineer
Analog Devices Inc.

November 2003 – August 2007
Wilmington, MA

Employed as a member of the EH&S group in a semiconductor development and manufacturing environment. Responsibilities include management of site emergency response initiatives including a 95 member volunteer Emergency Response Team across four shifts fully trained up to and including Level A as well as serving as one of the sites Emergency Response Coordinators (ERC). Supported initiatives based on and maintenance and continuation of ISO, TS, and OHSAS standards for the corporation including participation in external surveillance and certification audits. Served as a lead auditor for the internal audit program. Developed and conducted training on a wide variety of EH&S topics. Served as a leader on safety action teams (JHAs), conducted ergonomic assessments, and developed/maintained metrics based on recorded data for presentation to senior staff. Participated in Total Quality Management (TQM) initiatives including development of award winning TQM Stories. Collaborated with various departments/divisions on implementation and maintenance of several programs including lockout/tagout, confined space, electrical safety (70E), and other OSHA related programs. Worked with database, document control, production management, and Microsoft applications on a daily basis

Corporate Safety Engineer
UniFirst Corporation

June 2001 – November 2003
Wilmington, MA

Responsible for overseeing and administering all aspects of the UniFirst health and safety program from the corporate level. Duties include but are not limited to: updating and administering safety program, audits, development and delivering of training for plant personnel, accident investigation, claims investigation, return to work/job modifications, exposure monitoring, risk analysis, management of Lotus accident database, and OSHA/CSST(Canada) compliance. Partnered with locations and corporate personnel regarding risk, safety concerns, plant designs, and upgrades/renovations on a daily basis. Responsibilities included working with government agencies, legal firms, internal sales/marketing, internal and external claims personnel, as well as external customers. Assisted claims personnel as needed. Served on ANSI Z8.1 revision committee through UTSA. Worked with Microsoft Office and Lotus Notes on a daily basis.

EDUCATION and EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor of Science in Occupational Safety
Minor in Business Management

Keene State College, Keene, New Hampshire

Executive education: Leadership, IESE (Enel LEMP program)

Executive education: International Business, SDA Bocconi (Enel LEMP program)

Coaching training

IRCA Accredited Lead Auditor: ISO 14001, ISO 9001, ISO 45001, OHSAS 18001

ACTIVITIES

TRAINING:

SafeStart trainer. Past President ASSE Greater Boston Chapter. Safety Professional of the year 2005, Greater Boston Chapter ASSE. New England Area (ASSE) Safety Professional of the year 2006. Active member, American Society of Safety Engineers (ASSE). Active member, AWEA Safety Committee member. NFPA 70E Training. Competent person, wind tower rescue. Qualified Person, fall protection. ANSI A10.21 committee (safety requirements for WTG construction)

References provided upon request
